Dear Chair Prozanski and Committee Members,

I live in S.E. Portland, and I am writing to urge you to support the sensible gun-control bills that will be heard by the Senate Judiciary Committee tomorrow. In memory of the victims of the Clackamas Town Center shooting and all the other Oregonians who have died from guns since that tragic shooting in December, our state should follow the lead of other states - namely Connecticut and Colorado - and enact common sense laws to limit gun violence. These modest bills will not infringe on the rights of responsible gun owners, but they could save many lives.

My husband and I support the passage of Senate Bills 700, 347, 699 and 796.

Thank you.
