Oregon has a fine and well-deserved reputation for progressive governance. House Bill 2585 runs counter to that reputation. Bills which are targeted towards ordinary citizens who disagree with public policy and wish to demostrate or protest against that policy ought not to be felonized. Granted, it is a national trend; however Oregon has always

There are laws already about burning down Forest Service offices. Those people go to jail. Someone standing on a forest road to protect Old Growth, ought not to be elevated to the punishment due an arsonist.

Please, protect Oregon's reputation for ethical and reasonable laws.

Respectfully,
