Please keep Oregon Promise.

I am a veteran that returned to school. Years before I returned, I attempted college in the fall immediately after I graduated in 2007. I burnt myself out before the end of the first term trying to work and go to school. As a veteran, it is easier for me to go to college due to the education benefits I have earned. With their assistance I am able to pursue my degree in business. I'm able to give my studies the proper time it deserves without sacrificing my mental and physical well being. Please don't dismiss this great opportunity for aspiring under-privleged students. Students need this assistance.

Sincerely

Jason Sallas
