Senate Bill 376

Sponsored by Senator WALKER (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Directs Oregon Health and Science University to post notice to patients in university facilities about provisions of Oregon Tort Claims Act and to include notice in university advertisements. Declares emergency, effective on passage.

 in subsection (3) of this section in a conspicuous manner and in a sufficient number of places in each of the university's facilities where patients of the university are present to reasonably ensure that patients are informed of the notice. (2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: NOTICE TO PATIENTS If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You should be aware that: Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. 	1	A BILL FOR AN ACT
4 SECTION 1. (1) Oregon Health and Science University shall display the notice specified 5 in subsection (3) of this section in a conspicuous manner and in a sufficient number of places 6 in each of the university's facilities where patients of the university are present to reason- 7 ably ensure that patients are informed of the notice. 8 (2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection 9 (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. 10 (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: 11	2	Relating to Oregon Health and Science University; and declaring an emergency.
5 in subsection (3) of this section in a conspicuous manner and in a sufficient number of places 6 in each of the university's facilities where patients of the university are present to reasonably ensure that patients are informed of the notice. 7 (2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection 9 (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form:	3	Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:
6 in each of the university's facilities where patients of the university are present to reasonably ensure that patients are informed of the notice. 7 (2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection 9 (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. 10 (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: 11	4	SECTION 1. (1) Oregon Health and Science University shall display the notice specified
ably ensure that patients are informed of the notice. (2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form:	5	in subsection (3) of this section in a conspicuous manner and in a sufficient number of places
8 (2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection 9 (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. 10 (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: 11	6	in each of the university's facilities where patients of the university are present to reason-
 9 (3) of this section in each advertisement for the university. (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: (4) NOTICE TO PATIENTS (5) If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You should be aware that: (2) Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. (3) A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. (4) A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. (4) If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. (5) SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	7	ably ensure that patients are informed of the notice.
10 (3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form: 11 12 12 NOTICE TO PATIENTS 13 NOTICE TO PATIENTS 14 If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 11 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. 12 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. 16 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. 12	8	(2) Oregon Health and Science University shall include the notice specified in subsection
11 12 13 NOTICE TO PATIENTS 14 If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the 15 medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 16 medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 17 certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You 18 should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited 20 to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 21 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. 22 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the 23 -A patient must give actual notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year 26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28 SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date	9	(3) of this section in each advertisement for the university.
12 NOTICE TO PATIENTS 13 NOTICE TO PATIENTS 14 If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the 15 medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 16 Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to 17 certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You 18 should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited 20 to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 21 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. 23 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the 24 injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year 25 after the injury occurs. 26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28 SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date	10	(3) The notice required by this section must be in substantially the following form:
13 NOTICE TO PATIENTS 14 If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the 15 medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 16 Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to 17 certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You 18 should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited 20 to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 21 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university 22 sity employees. 23 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the 24 injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year 25 after the injury occurs. 26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28	11
14 If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the 15 medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 16 Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to 17 certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You 18 should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited 20 to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 21 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. 23 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the 24 injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year 25 after the injury occurs. 26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28	12
15 medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 15 Medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims 16 Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to 17 certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You 18 should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited 20 to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 21 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. 23 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the 24 injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year 25 after the injury occurs. 26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28	13	NOTICE TO PATIENTS
Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You should be aware that: -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date	14	If you have a claim against Oregon Health and Science University by reason of the
17 certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You should be aware that: 18 should be aware that: 19 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited 20 to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. 21 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. 23 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year 25 after the injury occurs. 26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28	15	medical care you receive from the university, the claim is subject to the Oregon Tort Claims should be aware that: Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	16	Act (ORS 30.260 to 30.300). Under the Oregon Tort Claims Act, the claim will be subject to
 -Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	17	certain limitations and requirements that do not apply to private medical providers. You to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient. A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	18	should be aware that:
 -A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from university employees. -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	19	-Claims against the university, and against university employees, generally are limited
 sity employees. -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	20	to no more than $200,000 for all damages suffered by the patient.
 -A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	21	-A patient cannot seek to recover punitive damages from the university or from univer-
 injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	22	sity employees.
 after the injury occurs. If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney promptly. SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	23	-A patient must give actual notice to the university of a claim within 180 days after the
26 If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney 27 promptly. 28	24	injury occurs. If a patient dies, notice must be given for the deceased patient within one year
27 promptly. 28	25	after the injury occurs.
 28 29 30 SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date 	26	If you have any questions about a possible claim, you should consult an attorney
29 30 SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date	27	promptly.
30 SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date	28
	29
31 of this 2007 Act.	30	SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2007 Act becomes operative 30 days after the effective date
	31	of this 2007 Act.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

SB 376

- 1 SECTION 3. This 2007 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
- 2 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2007 Act takes effect

3 on its passage.

4