Page 1

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON

FOR THE COUNTY OF MULTNOMAH

NEIL RUFFIN,

vs.

Plaintiff,

Case No. 1004-05183

KYLE NICE and CITY OF PORTLAND, a municipal corporation,

Defendants.

VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF ROSANNE SIZER

Taken on behalf of the Plaintiff

February 9, 2011

Rosanne Sizer

Page 2 1 BE IT REMEMBERED THAT, the videotaped 1 2 deposition of ROSANNE SIZER was reported by Marcel 2 3 Nu Johnson Catillad Chathand Banatar and 2 3 Sur	Page 4
2 deposition of ROSANNE SIZER was reported by Marcel 2 EXAMINATION INDEX
2 N Johnson Contified Charthand Demostry and C	Page
3 N. Johnson, Certified Shorthand Reporter and 3 Exa	mination by Mr. Kafoury 5
4 Registered Professional Reporter, on February 9, 4
5 2011, commencing at the hour of 10:47 a.m., the 5	* * *
6 proceedings being reported in the law offices of 6	EXHIBIT INDEX
7 Hoffman Hart & Wagner, 1000 Southwest Broadway, 7 Nur	mber Item Page
8 Suite 2000, Portland, Oregon. 8	(No exhibits were marked.)
9 * * * 9	* * *
10 APPEARANCES 10
11 11
12KAFOURY & McDOUGAL12	2 C
13By Gregory Kafoury13
14 320 Southwest Stark, Suite 202 14
15 Portland, Oregon 97204 15
16 503-224-2647 16	2
17 Counsel for Plaintiff
18 18 19 HOFFMAN HART & WAGNER, LLP 19
19HOFFMAN HART & WAGNER, LLP1920By Richard J. Kuhn20
21 1000 Southwest Broadway, Suite 2000 21
21 1000 Southwest bloadway, Suite 2000 21 22 Portland, Oregon 97205 22
23 503-222-4499 23
24 Counsel for City of Portland 24
25 25
Page 3	Page 5
1 PRANGE LAW GROUP, LLC	THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 9:47 (sic).
	We are now on the record.
3 111 Southwest Fifth Avenue, Suite 2120 3	ROSANNE SIZER, ing been first duly sworn, was examined and
, 5	ified as follows:
6 Counsel for Sergeant Kyle Nice 6	EXAMINATION
7 6	BY MR. KAFOURY:
	What's your full name?
1 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Rosanne Sizer.
•	You are retired?
	Yes, I am.
	And give me the 30-second version of your of your police career.
	I was hired in 1985 and over the course of 25 years in the Police Bureau, eventually ascended to the rank of chief of police and retired in that position in July of last year.
	How many years were you chief?
	Four.
	What was your role in disciplinary decisions
	when you were chief?
	Well, the city charter gives the police chief authority to mete out discipline of written eprimand. Ultimately, by charter, the commissioner in charge is the disciplinarian

2 (Pages 2 to 5)

Page 10	Page 1
1 finding. And a finding basically is whether or	1 Q. You can answer.
2 not the officer the case proved by a	2 MR. KUHN: You can answer.
3 preponderance of the evidence that the officer	3 A. I don't even think I understand the question
4 violated a policy or a procedure.	4 because it's so hypothetical that
5 Q. Okay. And then that commander's recommendation	5 BY MR. KAFOURY:
6 goes where?	6 Q. I understand. What what what you said
7 A. It goes back to the chief's office and back to	7 was that one could violate police procedures
8 the Internal Affairs Division. An assistant	8 A. Right.
9 chief or the commander of the Internal Affairs	9 Q without having been found without being
10 Division has the ability to controvert the	10 liable for battery or unlawful use of force by 11 finding of the commander's.	11 a jury. But I I want to flip that and ask
12 If there's a sustained finding, it goes to	12 the other way around.
13 the review committee. Or controversions by an	13 Can one can one be liable or make the assistant chief or the IAD commander can	14 city liable because of their conduct for also will also go to the review committee.	15 battery or unlawful use of force without the 16 And then that committee looks at the	16 same findings for the same conduct violating
17 facts, reviews the investigations, come	17 police procedures?
18 together and make a decision actually about	18 A. Police policy is more restrictive than state
19 whether or not they think the allegations	19 law.
should have been sustained and if so, their	20 Q. Okay. In your time with the police department, recommendation about the level of discipline.	21 did you ever come to believe that the unlawful 22 That information then comes to the chief	22 use of force by Portland police officers of police, and I explained the rest of the	 against civilians was a problem?
24 process,	24 A. I think their use of force is a huge issue
25 Q. Okay. If if, for instance, a civil lawsuit	²⁵ in police work everywhere. And I felt that to
Page 11	Page 1
1 is filed and a jury should find that an officer	1 the degree that we could, we needed to train
2 used unlawful force, would that finding by the	 and supervise and think of using the least amount of force necessarily necessary to ³ jury have any necessary impact on discipline?
4 A. It doesn't. And in most case, it can't,	4 reasonably effect a positive outcome.
5 because usually the civil court process is	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So 	 4 reasonably effect a positive outcome. 5 And and so I believe that that requires 6 strong oversight and a lot of thought and
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Are you aware of any occasions during your time
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. Q. Can an officer violate the civil law on 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force against a civilian?
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. Q. Can an officer violate the civil law on battery, for instance, or unlawful use of 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force against a civilian? A. I don't recall terminating for excessive force
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. Q. Can an officer violate the civil law on battery, for instance, or unlawful use of force, without violating the departmental 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force against a civilian? A. I don't recall terminating for excessive force during my tenure.
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. Q. Can an officer violate the civil law on battery, for instance, or unlawful use of force, without violating the departmental regulations? 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force against a civilian? A. I don't recall terminating for excessive force during my tenure. Q. And how many years did you serve on the
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. Q. Can an officer violate the civil law on battery, for instance, or unlawful use of force, without violating the departmental regulations? MR. PRANGE: Object to the form of the 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force against a civilian? A. I don't recall terminating for excessive force during my tenure. Q. And how many years did you serve on the Portland police force in one capacity or
 because usually the civil court process is slower even than our discipline process. So Q. What do you mean lower? A. Slower. Q. Slower. I'm sorry. A. It's slower. And so, many cases take a long time to make their way through the civil process, and so we proceed with an internal process. The proofs in criminal or civil court and in these administrative procedures are different. The law is different. And so you can violate our policies without violating state law. They're just different systems. Q. Can an officer violate the civil law on battery, for instance, or unlawful use of force, without violating the departmental regulations? 	 reasonably effect a positive outcome. And and so I believe that that requires strong oversight and a lot of thought and continuous management and supervision, becaus of the authority that society gives to police officers, the tools that it gives to police officers, and how important it is that we use those tools and that authority responsibly in very quickly evolving, often chaotic circumstances. It's just an issue that I think police managers need to attend to all of the time. Q. Are you aware of any occasions during your time as chief where a Portland police officer lost their job because of the excessive use of force against a civilian? A. I don't recall terminating for excessive force during my tenure. Q. And how many years did you serve on the

		Page 14			Page 16
1 1	0		1		I think it was two weeks.
2	Q.	Are you aware during those 25 years of any occasions in which a Portland police officer	2		Okay. Any other occasions that you recall?
3		lost their job because of their unlawful use of	3		I'm sure there were, but not right offhand.
4		force against a civilian?	4		In your time as police chief, are you aware of
5		I am aware of a couple occasions where there	5	- 6	Α.		6		any times when a Portland police officer was 7		was a termination for use of force, but I think they were all overturned through the labor	7		criminally prosecuted for the unlawful use of
8			8		force against a civilian? No. I I am not aware that there was one.
9		process, resulting in an arbitration and an arbiter's finding that the termination was not	9		There wasn't one.
10		supported by the evidence in the case.	10		In your 25 years on the force, are you aware of
11	0	In the last 60 years, are you aware of any	11		any instances where a Portland police officer
12	Q.	occasion in which a Portland police officer	12		was criminally prosecuted for the unlawful use
13		lost their job because of their excessive use	13		of force against a civilian?
66		of force against a civilian?	14		I am not aware that there was one.
235-5-67	٨	I am not aware of 60 years of Portland police	15		If if an officer has an allegation of
1 de	A 1	history. But certainly in my tenure in the	16	-	unlawful force and it's a it's not
11		Police Bureau, I don't think any of them ever	17		sustained well, let me ask you this.
1a		survived if they were decisions that they	18		During your time of as police chief, on
10		were made, they didn't survive the labor	19		how many occasions was an unlawful use of force
20		process.	20		allegation ultimately sustained against a
2	0	And the arbitration process, which in at least	21		police officer?
22	ų.	those two instances resulted in the	22		I can't think, specifically. But I think if 23		reinstatement of the officer, that is something	23		you were to talk to the people in the
24		which is in the city code as a result of	24		Independent Police Review Division, they could
25		negotiations between the police union and the	25		give you more precise numbers than I can do off
	_				give you more precise numbers than I can do on
		Daga 1h			Page 17
1		Page 15			Page 17
1		city; is that correct?	1		the top of my head.
2	A.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but	2	Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any?
2 3		city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon.	2 3	Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding?
2 3 4		city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any	2 3 4	Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah.
2 3 4 5		city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for	2 3 4 5	Q. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this.
2 3 4 5 6	Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian?	2 3 4 5 6	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others?
2 3 4 5 6 7	Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes.	2 3 4 5 6 7	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A.	 the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	Q. A. Q. Q. A.	 the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Q. A. Q. A.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. A. Q. A.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. A. Q. A.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. A. A. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. A. A. A. Q. A. A. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most immediately in mind involved an officer who was 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there? There are roughly 900 now, I think.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most immediately in mind involved an officer who was working Southeast Precinct at the time and he 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. A. A. A. Q. A. A. A. Q. A. A. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there? There are roughly 900 now, I think. How many of them are routinely interacting with
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most immediately in mind involved an officer who was working Southeast Precinct at the time and he chased down a robber, handcuffed him, and then 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there? There are roughly 900 now, I think. How many of them are routinely interacting with civilians as opposed to those who have desk
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most immediately in mind involved an officer who was working Southeast Precinct at the time and he chased down a robber, handcuffed him, and then dropped down and drove his elbow into the as 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there? There are roughly 900 now, I think. How many of them are routinely interacting with civilians as opposed to those who have desk jobs?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. A. Q. A. Q.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most immediately in mind involved an officer who was working Southeast Precinct at the time and he chased down an drove his elbow into the as I recall the gut of the suspect. And he 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there? There are roughly 900 now, I think. How many of them are routinely interacting with civilians as opposed to those who have desk jobs? You mean patrol officers?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. A. Q. A.	 city; is that correct? Well, it's a combination of the contract, but also labor law in the state of Oregon. During your time as chief, were there any Portland police officers who were suspended for the unlawful use of force against a civilian? Yes. Tell me about those instances. I don't know that I can recall all of them. But the most public of those involved a shooting case involving Lieutenant Jeff Kaer and ultimately, it resulted in he was terminated, and then he was reinstated with a 30-day suspension. Okay. Can you recall any other such instances where a where the suspension was actually carried out? Yeah. And I'm the one that comes most immediately in mind involved an officer who was working Southeast Precinct at the time and he chased down a robber, handcuffed him, and then dropped down and drove his elbow into the as 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q. A. Q.	the top of my head. I understand. Can you think of any? That there was a sustained finding? Yeah. Yeah. Well, I talked about two preceding this. Okay. Any others? I think there was one involving an East Precinct officer following pursuit, and there was a scuffle to take the suspect into custody, and one of the officers punched the suspect in the face How many during the course of taking him into custody. Was that officer suspended? I believe he was. And how many Portland police officers are there? There are roughly 900 now, I think. How many of them are routinely interacting with civilians as opposed to those who have desk jobs? You mean patrol officers? Patrol officers.