

House Consumer Protection &
Government Efficiency Committee

March 14, 2013

Mr. Chairman and members of the committee:

My name is John C. Powell. I am an attorney and an associate at John Powell & Associates. Our offices are at 2015 State Street, Salem, Oregon.

Today I speak on behalf of Standard Insurance Company, Liberty Mutual and State Farm Insurance Companies. These insurers market most lines of insurance in Oregon, including but not limited to property/casualty, life, health, long-term care, and worker's compensation insurance. We oppose HB 3160 which seeks to add insurance to Oregon's Unlawful Trade Practices Act (UTPA). This testimony speaks directly to HB 3160, but is also applicable to the other so called "second lawsuit" or "bad faith" bill (HB 2525). The UTPA is a statute that protects consumers from unfair general business practices by granting the Attorney General jurisdiction over such matters as well as creating a private cause of action. Insurance was explicitly excluded from the UTPA when it was written and should remain so for many reasons.

In this testimony, I want to first refer the committee to past testimony in opposition to or questioning similar bills that have come before the legislature. Second, I want to provide the committee with a glance at the wide difference between the insurance product and products you would buy at an appliance store, a retail electronics outlet or an online subscription. This is really the issue raised by HB 3160 (and HB 2525) and why each form of commerce should be regulated differently.

To begin, I refer you to the transcript of testimony given by the former Director of Oregon's Department of Insurance and Finance (now DCBS) and former Governor Ted Kulongoski (see Exhibit #1). The future Attorney General, Supreme Court Justice and Governor testified against the establishment of creating a private right of action under the insurance code stating in part:

"That if it's the committee's desire that there should be a private cause of action, I'm even more strongly opposed to the proposal...My objection to that is...is one, in my experience both as an attorney in a similar process as that and secondly, my experience now as the insurance commissioner in dealing with the carriers and trying to get settlements in these matters. My objections is that I can guarantee you that if you pass the bill, it's going to cost the administrative side just a great deal of time and money and we will not be able to resolve the claims...To be very blunt, that if the law is passed...if this measure is passed, the carriers will not respond to us...the parties, basically use the administrative agency as the investigatory arm to gather facts and then at the end of the period the matter becomes a public record and then they take it and then they make their decision whether they want to go to court or not. I don't like that process and I don't think that's the way we should be handling the resolution of these type of complaints. That's all I have."

While the proposal he was testifying against was different (although more limited, but similar to HB 2525), the central issue he raised is the same. If the parties to a dispute know it is going to court, they will respond to a regulatory agency differently. The parties to such disputes will use the regulator agency as a research arm to use in court, instead of resolving the issue equitably.

Next, I refer the committee to the written testimony given by former Director of DCBS, Cory Streisinger on a bill that sought to add insurance to the UTPA in 2010. In her testimony, then Director Streisinger points out the comprehensive consumer protection statutes that currently apply to insurance and raises concern about duplicating rulemaking and enforcement authority exercised within DCBS by adding such authority to the Attorney General (see Exhibit #2).

Again, in the 2011 session another bill was introduced proposing to add insurance to the UTPA. Writing in the Oregon Insurance Regulator, then Administrator of the Oregon Insurance Division, Teresa Miller stated (see Exhibit #3):

“Senate Bill 719 would allow the Attorney General to regulate insurance under the [UTPA]. In effect, this would create a dual system of state insurance regulation, which raises some concerns. For example, if the Attorney General and our Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) both have authority to address violations of the Insurance Code, one could issue rules that are inconsistent with rules issued by the other. Also DCBS and the Attorney General could both separately require conflicting or different remedial action for a violation of the Insurance Code. If the Attorney General and DCBS could not agree on the remedial action necessary, which regulator should the producer or insurer listen to?”

Finally, the remaining portion of this testimony focuses on how insurance is different from other products and services we all use and purchase and for that reason should be regulated differently. When a consumer purchases a product in general commerce she is depending on the manufacturer and retailer to be fair. The consumer expects the product to be of reasonable quality and fairly represented by all involved in the sale. Those transactions and the actions of the parties are protected under the UTPA.

On the other hand, when a consumer purchases an insurance product, the issue of fairness has been addressed before the product can even be sold to a consumer. The Oregon Insurance Division (OID) must first approve the actual wording of the policy (see Exhibit #4). After the sale of an insurance product, the consumer continues to be protected by an entire governmental department, the OID. Insurance products, insurance companies and their producer agents are subject to an entire section of Oregon law --- 571 pages of statute known as the Insurance Code (ORS 731-52). Within the Insurance Code, insurers and insurance producers (agents) are subject to extensive and specific trade practices laws in ORS 746, including a section entitled, Unfair Claim Settlement Practices (ORS 746.230) (See Exhibit #5). This act gives protections to consumers against misrepresentations, delay in processing claims fairly and failure of insurers to respond promptly to communications related to claims, among many more protections.

Furthermore, the Insurance Code gives nearly unlimited regulatory authority to the Director of the Department of Consumer & Business Services (DCBS). ORS 746.240 is entitled, Undefined trade practices injurious to public prohibited (See Exhibit #6). This section of the code states:

“No person shall engage in this state in any trade practice that, although not expressly defined and prohibited in the Insurance Code, is found by the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services to be an unfair or deceptive act or practice in the transaction of insurance that is injurious to the insurance-buying public.”

In addition to the Insurance Code, the Insurance Division has vast rulemaking powers. Exhibit #7 is a copy of the table of contents of the Division's rules. Just the table of contents is 32 pages long and that is printed in very small font.

The Insurance Code and related administrative rules grant the Director of DCBS the authority to issue fines, issue cease and desist orders, revoke producer licenses and revoke the license of an entire insurance company to do business in Oregon. In Exhibit #8 you will find an example of fines and revocations applied recently by the Insurance Commissioner.

In addition to the regulation described above, worker's compensation insurance is regulated by a separate division of DCBS, the Worker's Compensation Division. Insurers selling worker's compensation coverage are regulated by this Division of government, and as you know, worker's compensation insurance has its own voluminous consumer protection statutes and rules.

Insurance and the method of regulating it are different from other industries covered by the UTPA. The Insurance Code was drafted to deal particularly with insurance and creates a form of regulation that deals with the content of the product before it is sold and trade practices after it is sold. This large body of law and regulation is enforced by a specific agency that has teeth and expertise.

Currently, beyond the regulatory protection outlined above, a consumer may file a civil action against an insurance company or producer agent under contract law for breach of contract. If the insurer or agent's actions were unconscionable, punitive damages can be assessed in addition to attorney fees and other damages found for the plaintiff. Adding the UTPA to this regulatory and contract law system will add costs that necessarily will be passed on to consumers.

Mr. Chairman and members of the committee, on behalf of the insurers and their producers, we ask that you oppose HB 3160 and HB 2525.

Sincerely,

John C. Powell

Testimony of Governor Kulongoski, when he was Director of the Department of Insurance and Finance in 1989. The Governor was testifying before the Senate Judiciary Committee on SB 521 – a bill introduced at the request of the Oregon Trial Lawyers Association, that would have created a first party right of action for an alleged violation of ORS 746.230 – the Unfair Claim Settlement Practices Statute.

MADAM CHAIRPERSON AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE, FOR THE RECORD, MY NAME IS THEODORE KULONGOSKI, I AM THE DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE AND FINANCE. THE REASON I AM HERE TODAY IS TO TESTIFY, REGARDING SENATE BILL 521. IN FACT I'LL BE VERY BRIEF. I'M HERE OPPOSING THE MEASURE AND THE CONCEPT IN 521 AND I WANT TO EXPLAIN WHY JUST VERY BRIEFLY.

OBVIOUSLY THE UNFAIR CLAIM SETTLEMENT PRACTICES ACT IS A REGULATORY ... ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATORY METHOD OF HANDLING DISPUTES BETWEEN CONSUMERS AND THE INSURER OR THEIR AGENTS ON MATTERS REGARDING A CLAIM. MY SPECIFIC OBJECTION IS THAT I THINK THAT THE CURRENT SYSTEM SHOULD BE RETAINED.

THAT IF IT'S THE COMMITTEE'S DESIRE THAT THERE SHOULD BE A PRIVATE CAUSE OF ACTION, I'M EVEN MORE STRONGLY OPPOSED TO THE PROPOSAL IN 521 THAT WOULD GIVE US 90 DAYS TO EITHER TELL THE CLAIMANT TO "PULL OVER" AND IF IT ISN'T RESOLVED IN THAT 90-DAY PERIOD, TO MAKE OR INSTITUTE A PRIVATE CAUSE OF ACTION.

MY OBJECTION TO THAT IS...IS ONE, IN MY EXPERIENCE BOTH AS AN ATTORNEY IN A SIMILAR PROCESS AS THAT AND SECONDLY, MY EXPERIENCE NOW AS THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER IN DEALING WITH THE CARRIERS AND TRYING TO GET SETTLEMENTS OF THESE MATTERS. MY OBJECTIONS IS THAT I CAN GUARANTEE YOU THAT IF YOU PASS THE BILL, IT'S GOING TO COST THE ADMINISTRATIVE SIDE JUST A GREAT DEAL OF TIME AND MONEY AND WE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO RESOLVE THE CLAIMS.

TO BE VERY BLUNT, THAT IF THE LAW IS PASSED...IF THIS MEASURE IS PASSED, THE CARRIERS WILL NOT RESPOND TO US AND WHAT WILL HAPPEN IS THEY'LL WAIT THE 90 DAYS AND THEN THEY'LL JUST HANDLE THE LEGAL PROCEDURE. THE REASON IS THAT A SIMILAR PROCEDURE LIKE THIS IS WITH THE BUREAU OF LABOR ON CERTAIN UNFAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES WHERE IN FACT, THE PARTIES, BASICALLY USE THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY AS THE INVESTIGATORY ARM TO GATHER FACTS AND THEN AT THE END OF THE PERIOD THE MATTER BECOMES A PUBLIC RECORD AND THEN THEY TAKE IT AND THEN THEY MAKE THEIR DECISION WHETHER THEY WANT TO GO TO COURT OR NOT. I DON'T LIKE THAT PROCESS AND I DON'T THINK THAT THAT'S THE WAY WE SHOULD BE HANDLING THE RESOLUTION OF THESE TYPE OF COMPLAINTS. THAT'S ALL I HAVE.

HOUSE BILL 3615

Testimony of
Cory Streisinger, Director
Department of Consumer and Business Services

My name is Cory Streisinger, and I am the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services. I am here today to offer comments on House Bill 3615, which would include insurance and lending under the Unfair Trade Practices Act (UTPA). As you know, DCBS currently regulates insurance and certain types of lending. And as a consumer protection agency, we support strong consumer protection standards in the areas we regulate.

With respect to insurance, states are the primary regulators of insurance, and our regulatory responsibilities cover all aspects of insurance. Existing law is fairly comprehensive, and includes broad consumer protections very similar, though not identical, to those in the UTPA. Attached to my testimony are some of the broad consumer protection statutes that apply to insurance. In addition to many specific prohibitions, there are general prohibitions on:

- Making any statement misrepresenting the terms of any insurance policy, or the benefits or advantages of any insurance policy. ORS 746.075(2)(a)
- Employing any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud. ORS 746.075(2)(e)
- Obtaining money or property by means of any untrue statement of a material fact, or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, not misleading. ORS 746.075(f)
- Engaging in any other transaction, practice, or course of business that operates as a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser, insured, or person with policy ownership rights. ORS 746.075(2)(g)
- Untrue, deceptive, or misleading advertising. ORS 746.110

In addition, ORS 746.240 provides that “No person shall engage in this state in any trade practice that, although not expressly defined and prohibited in the Insurance Code, is found by the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services to be an unfair or deceptive act or practice in the transaction of insurance that is injurious to the insurance-buying public.”

Some examples of issues we’ve addressed recently through rulemaking include our suitability rules for life insurance products, prohibiting the sale of life insurance or annuities to seniors when the product being sold is not suitable in light of the buyer’s age, financial situation and other needs; and our rule barring insurance salespeople from using non-substantive or misleading titles such as “retirement specialist” or “senior advisor” when those titles do not represent actual professional credentials.

We have a staff of consumer advocates who work with consumers to resolve individual insurance problems. When we see a recurring problem or trend, it will be referred to our market analysis staff who can do a more in-depth investigation. We have broad enforcement powers as well, including the ability to impose fines and require disgorgement of profits, issue cease-and-desist orders, suspend or revoke licenses and certificates of authority, and even seek criminal penalties.

An example of how this process works is our enforcement action against Bankers Life for the sale of unsuitable annuities to seniors. We learned of the problem through a contact to our consumer advocates; our market analysis staff did an investigation; and we imposed a $150,000 fine, obtained restitution for those who had been sold annuities that weren't suitable for them, revoked the licenses of several agents who had sold the products, and required the company to make substantial changes in its business practices going forward.

In the lending area, the state regulatory framework is not quite as comprehensive, although consumer lending is also subject to a variety of federal consumer protection laws. We regulate state-chartered banks and credit unions, mortgage brokers and bankers, consumer finance lenders, payday and title lenders, and pawnbrokers, but we do not regulate federal banks and credit unions (and are preempted from doing so). The statutes governing each of these areas vary in how they address lending practices.

Mortgage lending has been a major focus for us over the past several years, and in this area there are also broad consumer protections similar to those in the UTPA. Excerpts from our mortgage lending statutes are attached. In addition to many specific prohibitions, it is unlawful for a person subject to our mortgage lending laws to:

- Employ a device, scheme or artifice to defraud, or engage in an act, practice or course of business that operates as a fraud or deceit. ORS 86A.154(1)&(2); ORS 86A.236(2)
- Knowingly make an untrue statement of a material fact or omit from a statement a material fact that would make the statement not misleading. ORS 86A.154(2); ORS 86A.236(3)
- Engage in an unfair or deceptive practice toward another person. ORS 86A.236(5)

We have broad rulemaking authority – an example is our rules prohibiting misleading advertising by mortgage lenders in connection with refinance offers. And we have extensive enforcement powers – fines, cease-and-desist orders, the ability to suspend or revoke licenses, and criminal penalties. Over the past two years we have taken enforcement action and issued sanctions in 75 mortgage lending cases, resulting in 26 license suspensions, revocations, or other bars from the mortgage business, and over $400,000 in fines.

House Bill 3615 would impose new substantive standards on insurance and lending – those contained in the UTPA. As I mentioned, those standards are similar, though not identical, to standards existing in some areas of current law. The bill would create a private right of action. And finally, it would create rulemaking and enforcement authority for the Attorney General, duplicating rulemaking and enforcement authority currently exercised by DCBS.

This last issue gives us some concern, because it raises the potential for confusion and lack of clarity. In general, we think it is preferable to for those in highly regulated areas to deal with a single regulator at the state level, so that expectations and directions are clear and consistent. This is particularly true with respect to insurance, where the state is the sole regulator and our authority extends to the entire industry. We have staff with a great deal of expertise in these areas, and we believe it would make most sense to leave primary rulemaking and enforcement authority with DCBS for those entities we regulate today, regardless of how you decide with respect to the other issues in the bill.

Thank you, and I'll be happy to respond to any questions.

Administrator's message

Teresa Miller

Following the disaster in Japan, I'm sure some of you are seeing increased interest in earthquake insurance and perhaps flood insurance for coastal residents wanting protection against a tsunami. While earthquake coverage remains readily available in Oregon, I want you to know that we do expect to see increases in the cost of this insurance. Our property and casualty technician, Cece Newell, explains why on Page 5 of this newsletter.

Meanwhile, as we pass the midway point for the 2011 Legislature, I want to share these updates on some key legislation. I apologize in advance that some of this will be outdated by the time you see this newsletter.

Children's health insurance enrollment: Senate Bill 514, if passed, is intended to restore year-round enrollment for children in Oregon's individual insurance market. As you know, insurers may no longer reject children under age 19 for coverage because of pre-existing conditions. They may, however, limit signups to certain enrollment periods. This bill and related rules would establish a reinsurance program through the Oregon Medical Insurance Pool that evenly spreads the risk of enrolling high-cost children so that no insurer pays a disproportionate amount. The legislation has passed in the Senate and now is awaiting House approval. If it becomes law, we could return to year-round enrollment by fall 2011 and put an end to a lot of consumer confusion.

Interstate compact: House Bill 2095 passed out of the House and is now in the Senate. This legislation would add Oregon to the states that belong to the Interstate Insurance Product Regulation Commission, making life insurance products more readily available to Oregonians.

Unlawful Trade Practices Act: Senate Bill 719 would allow the Attorney General to regulate insurance under the Unlawful Trade Practices Act (UTPA). In effect, this would create a dual system of state insurance regulation, which raises some concerns. For example, if the Attorney General and our Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) both have authority to address violations of the Insurance Code, one could issue rules that are inconsistent with rules issued by the other. Also, DCBS and the Attorney General could both separately require conflicting or different remedial action for a violation of the Insurance Code. If the Attorney General and DCBS could not agree on the remedial action necessary, which regulator should the producer or insurer listen to? This bill is with the Senate Committee on General Government, Consumer, and Small Business Protection.

STANDARDS FOR MOTOR VEHICLE FORMS FILING

This checklist (product standards) has been provided as an aid to assist you in preparing your filing. Please complete this checklist and attach it to the Supporting Documentation tab where indicated. ORS 731.296, OAR 836-010-0011 (2) & (3). This checklist includes relevant statutes, rules, bulletins, and other documented positions to enforce ORS 731.016. The standards are summaries. Review of the entire statute or rule may be necessary. After diligent consideration has been given to each item, mark either the "Yes" or the "N/A" box, or provide the page and paragraph where the information may be found. If a state specific amendatory endorsement is being used, please note the form number under the page and paragraph area. Compliance with these provisions must be certified by both the filer and an officer of the company signing the Certificate of Compliance form. These signatures certify the forms being submitted meet the requirements of our checklist and statutes. "Not applicable" can be used only if the item does not apply to the coverage being filed. Any line left blank may result in the delay or disapproval of the filing.

The checklist is NOT APPLICABLE to the following:

- For TOIs not listed, see our Web site for specific standards at: http://insurance.oregon.gov/docs/serffiling_requirements.html.
- Adopting bureau forms, see requirements under Bureau Form Adoption on our Web site.

Requirements	OAR 836-010-0011 As required on SERFF or our Web site	Filing requirements are located on SERFF or on our Web site at: www.insurance.oregon.gov/docs/serff/filing_requirements.html. If filing via SERFF, the correct information must be attached to the appropriate schedule items in order for your filing to be considered complete. The clean copy of the submitted form must be attached under the Form Schedule tab. Each form filed for approval must be attached to a separate Schedule Item under this tab. The form number should appear exactly as shown on the PDF document. Any edition/revision date used in the form number must be included under the Form Number column. It is not necessary to use the Edition Date column. However, if you prefer to use the Edition Date column, please do not include the edition date in the Form Number column. The Form Type column and the Action Specific Data column must be completed correctly by providing the Oregon Filing Number of the previous filing, and the correct form number with the edition date of the form being replaced. Please do not file the same form for approval more than once. If the same policy form will be used for multiple product offerings, it need only be filed once. Provide an explanation of the different programs under the General Filing Description in SERFF, or in a cover letter. Forms of a generic nature that will be used on different lines of insurance may be filed using "interline" coding. Use the General Filing Description or a cover letter to note all of the lines or programs it will apply to. For example, a FRAUD WARNING STATEMENT filed as a simple endorsement that could be attached to all personal lines or all commercial lines policies, need only be sent once; thereby avoiding duplicates of the same form being assigned to more than one analyst. If submitting a paper filing, please see 9 below. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. (a) Misrepresenting facts or policy provisions in settling claims;

(b) Failing to acknowledge and act promptly upon communications relating to claims;

(c) Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims;

(d) Refusing to pay claims without conducting a reasonable investigation based on all available information;

(e) Failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after completed proof of loss statements have been submitted;

(f) Not attempting, in good faith, to promptly and equitably settle claims in which liability has become reasonably clear;

(g) Compelling claimants to initiate litigation to recover amounts due by offering substantially less than amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such claimants;

(h) Attempting to settle claims for less than the amount to which a reasonable person would believe a reasonable person was entitled after referring to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application;

(i) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application altered without notice to or consent of the applicant;

(j) Failing, after payment of a claim, to inform insureds or beneficiaries, upon request by them, of the coverage under which payment has been made;

(k) Delaying investigation or payment of claims by requiring a claimant or the physician of the claimant to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring subsequent submission of loss forms when both require essentially the same information;

(L) Failing to promptly settle claims under one coverage of a policy where liability has become reasonably clear in order to influence settlements under other coverages of the policy; or

(m) Failing to promptly provide the proper explanation of the basis relied on in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable law for the denial of a claim.

(2) No insurer shall refuse, without just cause, to pay or settle claims arising under coverages provided by its policies with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice in this state, which general business practice is evidenced by:

(a) A substantial increase in the number of complaints against the insurer received by the Department of Consumer and Business Services;

(b) A substantial increase in the number of lawsuits filed against the insurer or its insureds by claimants; or

(c) Other relevant evidence.

(3)(a) No health maintenance organization, as defined in ORS 750.005, shall unreasonably withhold the granting of participating provider status from a class of statutorily authorized health care providers for services rendered within the lawful scope of practice if the health care providers are licensed as such and reimbursement is for services mandated by statute.

(b) Any health maintenance organization that fails to comply with paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be subject to discipline under ORS 746.015.

(c) This subsection does not apply to group practice health maintenance organizations that are federally qualified pursuant to Title XIII of the Health Maintenance Organization Act. [1967 c.359 §588a; 1973 c.281 §1; 1989 c.594 §1]

746.240 Undefined trade practices injurious to public prohibited.
