WHAT THE MEASURE DOES: Allows trial court to retain jurisdiction to enter judgment or appealable order after notice of appeal is filed for the sole purpose of entering judgment or order in register. Declares emergency, effective on passage.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Provisions of the measure

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: No amendment.

BACKGROUND: Senate Bill 50 addresses the situation where an order or judgment is appealed but the order or judgment, although signed by the judge, had not been filed or entered into the register. Currently, a motion is required for re-entering the judgment or order to be able to pursue the appeal because the Court of Appeals obtained jurisdiction when the appeal was served and filed. Senate Bill 50 clarifies that the trial court retains jurisdiction for entering a judgment or order in the register even after an appeal has been served and filed.
