3 “SECTION 1. (1) Except as provided in section 2 of this 2014 Act:

4 “(a) A trial in which the most serious charge alleged in the charging instrument is des-
5 ignated by statute as a misdemeanor must commence within two years from the date of the 6 filing of the charging instrument.

7 “(b) A trial in which the most serious charge alleged in the charging instrument is des-
8 ignated by statute as a felony must commence within three years from the date of the filing
9 of the charging instrument.

10 “(c) A trial in which two or more charges have been consolidated pursuant to ORS 132.560
11 must commence within the applicable time period required in this subsection for the most
12 serious offense alleged in the charging instrument.

13 “(d) A joint trial in which two or more defendants are charged in the same charging in-
14 strument must commence within the applicable time period required in this subsection for 15 the most serious offense alleged in the charging instrument.

16 “(2) The time limits required in subsection (1) of this section cease to apply to a defend-
17 ant who fails to appear at the date and time scheduled for trial.

18 “(3) If a trial date is scheduled by the court for a defendant represented by counsel and 19 neither the defendant nor the defendant’s counsel objects within seven days of the notice of 20 the trial date to the fact that the scheduled trial date is not within the time limit required
21 in subsection (1) of this section, the time limit is extended until the scheduled trial date, and 22 may be further extended as provided in section 2 of this 2014 Act.

23 “SECTION 2. (1) All applicable periods of elapsed time as follows are excluded from the 24 time limits described in section 1 of this 2014 Act:

25 “(a) A period of time during which the defendant is:

26 “(A) Under observation or examination for fitness to proceed under ORS 161.365, begin-
27 ning when the issue of the defendant’s possible lack of fitness to proceed has been raised by 28 the defendant or the defendant’s counsel, until a final determination regarding the 29 defendant’s fitness to proceed has been made by the court;

30 “(B) Determined to be unfit to proceed by the court pursuant to ORS 161.360 and 161.370;

31 “(C) Under observation or examination after notice of the issue of the defendant’s mental 32 disease or defect, partial responsibility, diminished capacity, insanity or other mental defense
33 is raised by the defendant or the defendant’s counsel, until the trial date; or

34 “(D) Unable to appear by reason of illness or physical disability.

35 “(b) A period of time following the filing of an interlocutory appeal or an appeal from the

1 dismissal of the charge or charging instrument, or that results from a stay issued by an
2 appellate court in a mandamus or habeas proceeding, until the appellate judgment is issued
3 or the stay is lifted by the appellate court.

4 “(c) A period of time between a scheduled court appearance at which the defendant fails
5 to appear and the next scheduled court appearance other than an appearance that occurs for 6 the purpose of addressing a warrant resulting from the defendant’s failure to appear.

7 “(d) A period of time during which the defendant’s location is known but the defendant’s 8 presence for trial cannot be obtained, or during which the defendant is outside this state and 9 resists being returned to this state for trial.

10 “(e) A period of time during which the defendant’s location is unknown and:

11 “(A) The defendant has attempted to avoid apprehension or prosecution; or 12 “(B) The defendant’s location cannot be determined by due diligence.

13 “(f) A period of time while the defendant is on trial or engaged in court proceedings in 14 an unrelated matter, whether in the same court or a different court, and was therefore 15 physically unavailable for trial.

16 “(g) A period of time between a mistrial on the charging instrument and a subsequent 17 trial on the charging instrument, not to exceed three months for each mistrial. The three-18 month limit may be extended by the court for good cause upon request from either party or 19 upon the court’s own motion.

20 “(h) A period of time between a continuance or a rescheduling of a trial date, granted 21 at the request of, or with the consent of, the defendant or the defendant’s counsel, and the 22 new trial date. A defendant who is proceeding without counsel may not consent to a contin-
23 uance or a rescheduling unless the court has advised the defendant of the defendant’s right
24 to a speedy trial within the time limit required in section 1 of this 2014 Act and the conse-
25 quences of the defendant’s consent to the continuance or rescheduling.

26 “(2) Any period of time excluded pursuant to subsection (1) of this section from the time
27 limits described in section 1 of this 2014 Act that applies to a defendant shall apply to all
28 other defendants charged in the charging instrument. However, if the court finds that it is 29 clearly inappropriate to apply the time exclusion to all of the other defendants, the court
30 may order any relief that justice requires.

31 “SECTION 3. If a trial is not commenced as required by section 1 of this 2014 Act, the 32 court shall order the charging instrument to be dismissed without prejudice unless the court
33 finds on the record substantial and compelling reasons to allow the proceeding to continue.

34 “SECTION 4. Sections 1 to 3 of this 2014 Act apply to proceedings in which a motion for 35 dismissal under section 3 of this 2014 Act is filed on or after April 1, 2014.

36 “SECTION 5. Notwithstanding ORS 163.095, when an element of a crime charged is that 37 the victim of the crime is a police officer as defined in ORS 181.610 and the crime was related 38 to the officer’s performance of official duties, the state may alternatively prove that the 39 victim of the crime is a certified reserve officer or a reserve officer, as those terms are de-
40 fined in ORS 181.610, and the crime was related to the officer’s performance of official duties.

41 “SECTION 6. Section 5 of this 2014 Act applies to criminal offenses committed on or after 42 the effective date of this 2014 Act.”.
