

The private party registration bill will not affect criminals or crime. It will only inconvenience the law abiding. I will not be supporting any legislator or party representing said legislators voting for the bill in future elections