

Dear Senator's

6 months ago I also was a renter and never did I expect my landlord to pay for my expenses due to my actions or bad decisions. I recently bought my first time home and decided to go with a duplex. The thought of this bill is frightening and would affect my business greatly. I feel as if there is a different approach to this problem. Your time and consideration is deeply appreciated!

Thank you,
Adrian Gonsalez