

I have a concern that use of a smart cell phone mounted in a rack so it is hands free being used to monitor traffic using a program called WAZE would not be allowed while the vehicle is moving is any different from the map system already built into the vehicles radio system screen and shows almost the same thing, yet this is not illegal. In other words I am concerned about overboard restrictions that restrict even hands free use.

Ray Fields
PO Box 728
McMinnville, OR 97128
503-472-4590
fields@raf.us