OREGON STRATEGIC CARBON REDUCTION REBATES

9 SECTION 9. (1) The Oregon Strategic Resiliency Commission shall develop and administer 10 a program to provide incentives for increasing the amount, availability and security of re-11 gional foodstuff supplies. The commission shall design the program to include, but not nec-12 essarily be limited to:

(a) Establishing an Oregon Strategic Resiliency Self-Sufficiency Region, consisting of a 300-mile diameter circle having a center near the geographic center of this state, as the production area for measuring the self-sufficiency of this state in foodstuff production;

(b) Establishing and administering a rebate system to encourage increased regional pro duction of all foodstuffs consumed within this state;

(c) Expanding regional foodstuff processing capacities including, but not limited to, expansion achieved through rebate incentives and targeted strategic investments to meet the foodstuff production needs of this state;

(d) Establishing and administering a system that provides quarterly rebates to at-risk foodstuff retailers to ensure the continued availability of critical foodstuffs in vulnerable areas of this state, all as defined by the commission; and

(e) Establishing partnerships to secure the best use of newly available foodstuff resources when those resources are not needed for responding to a major seismic event, including but not limited to partnerships with local and regional nonprofit organizations and public and private enterprises.

(2) The commission shall establish rebate schedules for purposes of subsection (1)(b) and
(c) of this section that are based on the reduction in carbon emissions achieved through the delivery of regionally produced foodstuffs to supply regional markets.

31 SECTION 10. The Oregon Strategic Resiliency Commission shall establish and administer 32 the program described in section 9 of this 2018 Act with the goal of achieving on or before 33 December 31, 2030:

(1) Identification of the Oregon Strategic Resiliency Self-Sufficiency Region described in section 9 (1)(a) of this 2018 Act;

36 (2) Regional production of 50 percent of all foodstuffs consumed within this state;

(3) Expansion of foodstuff processing facilities within the Oregon Strategic Resiliency Self-Sufficiency Region sufficient to process all regionally produced foodstuffs consumed within this state;

40 (4) The making of targeted strategic investments to develop regional foodstuff resources
 41 sufficient to meet this state's anticipated foodstuff production needs following a major seis 42 mic event;

43 (5) Arrangements for the payment of quarterly rebates to at-risk foodstuff retailers suf44 ficient to ensure the continued availability of critical foodstuffs in vulnerable areas of this 45 state as described in section 9 (1)(d) of this 2018 Act; and
