

Dear big people who make the rules,
My name is Lilah. I am four but last summer I was only three.
I like dogs and Paw Patrol.
I always want to play in the water but sometimes
there's really big waves.
They scare me and even though I am a ginormous
kid sometimes I cry.
Mom and Grandma won't let me play in the water
all the days when I'm really hot because there are too many big boats and they say I am too little.
Can you please make the big waves go away so I can play in the water and not be afraid?
Thank you, Lilah
