

I am writing to support SB 723-2 which bans coyote killing contests. I am appalled that this kind of blood sport is still allowed in Oregon. Coyotes are an important part of our environment: their chief food is rats, mice, gophers and other rodents—animals which, I presume, farmers believe are harmful to agriculture.

Karon V. Johnson