

Please support SB723-2.

These hunts, using every technological advantage by teams of killers, are about as unsporting as can be. They do not significantly reduce coyote numbers, but are simply an opportunity to kill for pleasure and a prize.

They express deep contempt for wildlife and, more importantly in my opinion, an even deeper contempt for Oregonians with conservation values. They are meant to offend.

Sent from my iPhone