

If this becomes law, kiss Oregon's economy good bye. If you want to be proactive get busy reforesting all of our ravaged burned timberland. Sequester carbon in our forests, manage them for all of us. This is a bad law that has a few misguided proponents that have no idea of how the real world works. Don't kill my state.