

It is not responsible to allow parents to pick and choose in a matter as important as vaccinations for our children. It is too costly to treat a disease that maybe prevented with a vaccine. Health care costs are rising and we do not need to add treating active measles cases to the cost.

Tracey Flynn
traceyflynn.7422@yahoo.com
15004 NE 25th CT
Vancouver , Washington 98686