

People need to have freedom to choose what goes into their own bodies. To legislate something that can cause death even though this is rare (1:100,000 vaccines) is wrong. Making an informed choice is an important part of freedom. As a nurse I support informed choice and the freedom to choose. Thank you for your consideration.

Sent from my iPhone