

To Whom It May Concern:

I vehemently oppose this bill and any like it that seek to reduce my ability to decide what is and is not injected or otherwise introduced into my body. The science surrounding vaccines is far from settled. Remember when cigarettes were considered safe? Where there is risk, there must be choice. Please, please, do your duty and protect our rights.

Sincerely,

Kristy Elizabeth Hoppe