

I oppose mandatory vaccination because it violates basic human rights. We should be allowed to choose what medical procedures our bodies go through based on our own personal convictions and research. And we should be able to exercise our parental rights to make medical decisions in what we feel is the best interest of our children.

I believe in INFORMED CONSENT and MEDICAL FREEDOM