

Hello-

We gather together as caregivers, under the agreeable truth that we want what's best for our children. Depending on background, religious beliefs , intuition, fear ,or preference we make the best decision. May no that take that away from us, we have our own truths,knowledge, and experiences that supports us be guided to decide what we want. May no one take that away from us because of money, education degree, or bullying.

Vaccines in my eyes will always be a choice.

Thank you

Peace makes you strong.
Hate reveals your emptiness.
Kindness feeds your happiness.
Anger reveals your fear
Love makes you free.
