

Drug dealers that are convicted of selling a controlled substance that kills someone should definitely have a harsher penalties than a slap on the wrist! Get the drug dealers off the street let them figure out what they're doing is wrong while they're sitting behind bars and find God!