Subject: NO on HB 2122
Date: Sunday, March 10, 2019 8:48:26 AM

House Committee on Revenue Members –

Re: HB 2122 defines groceries and retailer for tax purposes.

Why on earth would you consider a tax on FOOD? Everyone has to eat and you will be hurting EVERYONE in Oregon by taxing anything that becomes food; purchased or served. Groceries and served foods are already more expensive thanks to your latest mandatory wage increases which are hurting our budgets now.

Please do not even consider putting this proposal on the floor.
