

Hi,

I am against the twice annual switching of the time from standard to daylight and back. I believe it would be best practice to pick a standard time and stay with it year around.