BACKGROUND:

Electronic transcripts, or eTranscripts, are generated by a web-based transcript system that allows high schools and higher education institutions to share students' academic information electronically. An eTranscript is considered an official high school academic record. Currently, each Oregon school district uses its own distinct transcript system. Senate Bill 17 creates a task force to determine how an eTranscript system can make it easier for Oregon students to move between high schools, track accelerated learning credits, enroll in post-secondary institutions, and access financial aid. The task force must also identify any costs, benefits, and implications to school districts, community colleges, public universities and the state.
