

HB 3338 is perhaps the worst written bill and has the worst intention of any bill I have ever read.

What this bill says is that if there is an active killing at a University, the police must leave their guns in their office and then go confront the violent, deranged murderer.

This bill should be voted down as soon as possible.