

Dear Chair Barker,

It will also have the unintended consequence of employers avoiding hiring young people of child bearing age, older people who might need surgery, and overweight people who will probably need knee replacements. Also, fewer staff will be affordable and pay raises will be less.

Sincerely,

David Lewis
1250 NE Lafayette Ave
McMinnville, OR 97128
lewisfurniture@juno.com