

Please recall that at age 16 you were not mature enough to understand anything that was going on in the political and adult world. It's worse today as teens are so distracted by screens and superficial activities that to give them the vote would be an extremely foolish gesture. Do not change the law for voting age!

Art Hyland
Gleneden Beach