new and excellent article about the Wi-Fi in Schools was published today: Wi-Fi in Schools: Experimenting With The Next Generation.

The article covers the various issues associated with Wi-Fi in schools including - the health effects associated with Wi-Fi use, especially in the school environment, the Bills in Oregon lobbied for by Parents Across America and David Morrison, children and teachers who have become injured etc.

The article includes interviews with Prof. Martha Herbert, Prof, Martin Pall, Attorney Dafna Tachover Esq. from We Are The Evidence and Deb Meyer from Parents Across America and with Laurie Brown, a teacher from LA who have been injured from the Wi-Fi with Microwave Sickness.

A recent front page article was published in Oregon regarding the Oregon Bills on the Wi-Fi in the Schools issue: Do We Need Warnings on Wi-Fi.

This article is another one in a series of excellent articles from The Epoch Times. The paper has been leading the coverage of the wireless issue with unbiased an factually based articles. Some of the articles were translated to other languages - the article Resistance to 5G: Roadblock to a High Tech Future Or Warning Of a Serious Health Risk was translated to German. Press Here for the article in German

The Epoch times is the paper with the highest distribution in the world and is available online in 21 languages.It is headquartered in NY

The other articles that were published by the paper:

The Dark Side of Wireless Technology

Study Finds 'Clear Evidence' Linking Cellphone Radiation to Tumors in Rats

The Threat 5G Poses To Human Health

15 Ways To Protect Yourself From Your Cell Phone

Resistance to 5G: Roadblock to a High Tech Future Or Warning Of a Serious Health Risk

Please send a thank you email to the journalist, Conan Milner (Conan.Milner@epochtimes.com. He was very touched by emails he received previously and it encourages him to continue and cover the topic and strengthen the interest of the paper.and their continued coverage of the issue.