

Dear Sir

We do not need more gun laws, law enforcement needs to enforce the laws on the books. Criminals do not play by the rules and will not give up their guns leaving the general public completely helpless. My family lives in a rural area, police response is hours or sometimes days, how do I protect my loved ones without my firearm. Please vote know on this very reckless law.

"Sincerely

Brad Key