

My husband and I reject the tenants in this amendment in toto. It is redundant to existing laws. Restrictive only to law abiding gun owners. Criminals can and will ignore anything they pass. Oregon is blind if it thinks it can follow in the footsteps of dangerous Chicago or California and survive. At the very least, citizens should be able to vote on such laws rather than have them shoved down their throats.