

I absolutely oppose SB770 and do not consent to the government determining what kind of health care I require. I will leave that to my team of doctors that know myself and my medical history. This is a government overreach and is not working for the citizens.

Heidi Timmons