

I take this opportunity to voice my objection to the very last sentence of this bill's amendment that states "an emergency is declared to exist". The only emergency I know of that exists is from our state legislators who appear to believe they have the authority to change federal laws concerning our Constitutional rights to have firearms.

Sincerely

Mike Sears