

Dear Senate Rules Committee,

The National Popular Vote would insure that every citizens vote would count. The Presidency should go to the candidate who gets the popular vote. This would ensure that every vote in all 50 states and D.C. is meaningful.

Thank you,
Karen Borders
Warrenton, OR