

Individual voters must matter in an election, not the geographic location of where that vote was cast. It is a misconception that under a National Popular Vote certain areas would 'decide' the election. In fact that's what happens now. National Popular Vote fixes this inequality by making every voter matter. It replaces swing states with a swing United States of America.

Please address this issue by voting yes on SB 870.

Sincerely,

Maurine Canarsky
1977 SE 22nd Ave.
Portland, OR 97214-4851