

Since I have been voting, twice, I have seen the president that won the popular vote not take office.

This is insane. If our "freedom" is founded on not having taxation without representation, then how are some states votes worth fractions of other states votes? Now is the the time for Oregon to give each of us equality in having our voices heard, and counted.

Popular Vote, Now. One person one vote.

Thank you

Lyndsay Levy
97210