

NO. Liability for damages from a gun that was stolen? NO NO NO. Allowing each public school/entity to create their own rules about concealed carry? NO again. The current pre-emption law works just fine. Leave 166.170 alone.

Address the problem. After you define it. Mental health issues, widespread un-monitored use of psychotropic drugs, a societal move away from the concept of the sanctity of life and consequences for actions.

Put some money towards in-house psychiatric care.
