

As a parent of a High School student in a Portland Public School, I urge you to support our schools in ways that give Oregon kids the best chance at success. Investments in mental health (adding more counselors), decreasing classroom sizes, increasing teacher pay, and investing in art programs like music and dance can have such dramatic effects.

Thank you for your consideration.

Eric Schniewind

--

-----

Sent from space.