ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

-A3 Requires, for specified types of cases, that a motion by the petitioner or cross-petitioner to take evidence be made no later than the date the record is settled.

BACKGROUND:

The Land Use Board of Appeals (LUBA) was established by the legislature in 1979, and has exclusive jurisdiction to review all land use decisions made by local governments and special districts. LUBA is governed by ORS Chapter 197, which specifies review procedures and scope, among other provisions.

House Bill 3272 A would allow LUBA to establish a new deadline for the filing of a review petition if it denies a petitioner's objection to the record, require that a motion by the petitioner or cross-petitioner to take evidence be made no later than the date the record is settled for filing an objection to the record for specified types of cases, and authorize LUBA to award reasonable attorney fees for motions filed without merit.
