

The National Popular Vote bill seems to me a sensible way of making sure our president is supported by a majority of voters. That sounds like true democracy to me. Why should some votes carry so much more weight than others? This needs to change.

Gisela S. Ray
Gresham, OR 97080
503 465 1598