

No government is a true Democracy unless all votes of its citizenry are counted equally and treated as sacred and vital under the law.

Larry Bailey