

I totally support the National Popular Vote bill and am so looking forward to adding Oregon to the list of wise state legislatures who have passed this bill. A democracy should function as a democracy. That means if you get the most votes in America, that ensures that you are the next president. Just common sense. I want to add my support to this vote happening tomorrow. Thank you, Cheryl Olson (lifelong resident of Oregon)