Subject: SB 792 – Relating to auto dismantlers

SB 792 changes the current Oregon Department of Transportation (ODOT) auto dismantler certificate from a three-year certification period to a one-year period and lowers the fee from $800 to $500. ODOT is authorized to annually inspect any business issued a certificate and submit reports to the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) if certain items are on the business premises.

Certificate applications or renewal applications must include a fire response plan approved by ODOT and proof of any applicable permits required by DEQ. ODOT may impose sanctions on certificate holders for conviction of offenses under specified environmental crime statutes. Dismantler businesses are also required to have annual inspections by local fire inspectors and furnish a written report to ODOT. There are 229 existing auto dismantlers in Oregon with DMV certificates.

A budget adjustment for ODOT (HB 5039) will be made to increase Other Funds $160,183 expenditure limitation and 0.75 FTE in the 2019-21 biennium.
