

I am an eastern Oregon farmer and I want coyote killing contests to be banned. Predators are part of the system. Most I see are hunting for gophers. Beats trapping them! And really beats poisoning them. I do kill coyotes that take down sheep but that happens very infrequently. Those who kill for fun are not working with nature. We need to learn to join forces with natural systems.

Mary McCracken
63036 buchanan lane
La Grande OR 97850

541 963-8917