

I commute daily to work on a bicycle. For about half of my commute, I share roads with cars. I currently slow down at stop signs prior to continuing through the intersection (slow enough to be able to stop quickly). As someone who has been commuting by bicycle for years, I believe this is the safest AND most logistically reasonable way to move through intersections. I support SB 998.

Thank you,
John Bershaw

--

Assistant Professor
Department of Geology
Portland State University
T: 503-725-3378