

Hello,

As a life long commuter cyclist I fully support this rule change (SB 998).

I see it as a win in every possible way for Oregon. When cycling is easier and safer then more Oregonians will choose to bike over taking a car. The result is that Oregonians are healthier, traffic congestion is relieved, and injuries are avoided.

Nancy Baumeister
Corvallis, Oregon