

I'd like to encourage the approval of the Idaho Stop in Oregon. As a middle aged woman and public health professional that bikes in good weather conditions to commute or travel for errands, I experience the frustration of coming to complete stops and regaining momentum when there is no vehicle approaching. As a driver, I would prefer a bicyclist in front of me yield versus stop at a stop sign when there is no one coming, for their own sake and mine.

Thank you.

Jeri Stroupe
503-954-7502

Sent from my phone; please excuse any spelling errors.