SUMMARY

Authorizes city that was annexed into special county service district to petition county board for withdrawal from district. Provides that if city that was annexed into special district upon election called only in such city wishes to withdraw from district, election called to withdraw city from district shall also be held only in city.] Changes requirement that withdrawal petition must be approved or denied depending on feasibility of providing district service to territory described in petition to option for county board to approve or deny petition based on feasibility. Provides that if city is withdrawn from county service district, city and district must negotiate and finalize agreement for equitable division and disposal of district assets. Authorizes resolution by circuit court if city and district are unable to agree on division and disposal of district assets.

Provides that if city was annexed into county service district upon election held only in city, and petition proposes withdrawal of city from district, election called to withdraw city from district must also be held in city.

Declares emergency, effective on passage.
