Date: 5/31/2019

SUMMARY

Reduces length of time of parental desertion or abandonment of child resulting in forfeiture of parent's intestate share of child's estate or parent's interest in property transferred from child to parent by transfer on death deed in parental forfeiture action to one year if person who would benefit from forfeiture is child or sibling of deceased child or three years for all others. Modifies burden of proof in parental forfeiture action to preponderance of evidence if person who would benefit from forfeiture is child or sibling of deceased child. Extends deadline for commencing parental forfeiture action to no later than one year after decedent's date of death if notice to interested persons not published.

Prohibits parent or stepparent who abandoned child from receiving damages for wrongful death of child.

Declares emergency, effective on passage.
