CHAPTER

AN ACT

Relating to parenting time in family law proceedings; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 107.102.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 107.102 is amended to read:

107.102. (1) In any proceeding to establish or modify a judgment providing for parenting time with a child, except for matters filed under ORS 107.700 to 107.735, there shall be developed and filed with the court a parenting plan to be included in the judgment. A parenting plan may be either general or detailed.

(2) A general parenting plan may include a general outline of how parental responsibilities and parenting time will be shared and may allow the parents to develop a more detailed agreement on an informal basis. However, a general parenting plan must set forth the minimum amount of parenting time and access a noncustodial parent is entitled to have.

(3) A detailed parenting plan may include, but need not be limited to, provisions relating to:

- (a) Residential schedule;
- (b) Holiday, birthday and vacation planning;
- (c) Weekends, including holidays, and school in-service days preceding or following weekends;
- (d) Decision-making and responsibility;
- (e) Information sharing and access;
- (f) Relocation of parents;
- (g) Telephone access;
- (h) Transportation; and
- (i) Methods for resolving disputes.

(4)(a) The court shall develop a detailed parenting plan when:

- (A) So requested by either parent; or
- (B) The parent or parents are unable to develop a parenting plan.

(b) In developing a parenting plan under this subsection, the court may consider only the best interests of the child and the safety of the parties.

(c) In developing a parenting plan under this subsection, the court may order equal parenting time. If a parent requests that the court order equal parenting time in the parenting plan, the court may deny the request if the court determines, by written findings, that equal parenting time is not in the best interests of the child or endangers the safety of the parties.

SECTION 2. The amendments to ORS 107.102 by section 1 of this 2019 Act apply to proceedings commenced on or after the effective date of this 2019 Act.
